

audiovideo2day the enlightened way to information!

online magazine

Information about vision and sound in the broadest sense. Editorials, tests and reports. Services: buying tips, shops, brand importers, tutorials. Through a personalized account, you can organize the home page according to your wishes.

events

Year after year, audiovideo2day organizes fairs and events about vision and sound, always in a relaxed atmosphere. From best known brands to small specialized labels. It is a great opportunity for consumers to have a good overview of the market, seek advice and guidance during many demonstrations.
